0.01 Definitions

Unless otherwise indicated herein or inconsistent with the context, capitalized words and expressions appearing in this Undertaking will be interpreted as follows:

0.01.01 Confidential Information

means any information (commercial, technical, scientific, financial, legal, personal or other information) that the DISCLOSING PARTY discloses [before and] during the term of the Undertaking and that the RECEIVING PARTY, exercising reasonable business judgment, understands to be confidential, including, in particular, any information related to its activities, business strategies and opportunities, finances, Intellectual Property, suppliers, clients or employees, but excludes:

- (a) information known to the RECEIVING PARTY prior to the date of its disclosure;
- (b) information known by the public or available to the public prior to the date of its disclosure;
- (c) information that becomes known by or available to the public after the date of its disclosure and that does not result from a breach of confidentiality by the RECEIVING PARTY;
- (d) information received at any time by a person that is not bound to one of the PARTIES by an undertaking of confidentiality with regard to such information;
- (e) information independently produced by the RECEIVING PARTY; and
- (f) personal information provided by an individual when such information is being used for the purpose for which it was previously disclosed or any other purpose permitted by law.

0.01.02 Intellectual Property

means all the intellectual assets of any PARTY, including:

- (a) those protected by contract, such as know-how, trade secrets, recipes and other similar assets; and
- (b) those protected by any law relating to patents, copyright, trademarks, industrial designs, integrated circuit topographies or plant varieties;

and includes any application made to a public authority for the purpose of securing intellectual property rights to such intangible assets;
